CHILD OF ACHIEVEMENT

The appropriately named Aria, in 3KB, sang her first solo number for her theatre school in front of 500 audience members last weekend! Aria sang 'Colours of the Wind' and her performance was wonderfully received. Well done, Aria, you are very brave!

PARENT'S BOOK LAUNCH!

Keira and Sophie's mum has written a book! They would love it if you could support her at her book launch on Saturday at St Andrews Church Hall in Kinson at 5.30pm.

'YoHo is an intriguing adventure tale of mystery, emotion, friendship and the sea. The novel, written by S L Wigmore, is about the incredible, but not impossible journey of Sapphire Turner, a little girl who doesn't give up on figuring out what happened to her parents. Sapphire is waiting for her pirate father to come home, he's been gone for years, and has been living at a children's home in the seaside town of Penzance these all those years. Others say he left her long ago, but Sapphire is still clinging to the hope that he will return someday. She's determined and curious and soon discovers that everything she believed about her family and her past is wrong.

As secrets start to emerge Sapphire embarks on a perilous and heartfelt journey past the shore. With loyal friends Jessica and Elijah, she has problems to solve, clues to find, and a world that is linked to pirates, past enemies, and secrets she can't even fathom. Along the way Sapphire is getting nearer and nearer to the answers she has sought throughout her life. YoHo is a tale of bravery, hope, loyalty, and trusting in those you love, it is much more than a pirate adventure. The novel's emotional storytelling and thrilling twists, along with atmospheric seaside settings, draw readers into Sapphire's world.'
